4	Regulations	Community Paramedicine Regulation Draft Discussion	Out of state students coming into KY-the clause is just for the students. It's in line with other education programs but once they go for CP licensure, they do need a KY license. 15 hours the way it's written, it doesn't specify how many hours in each topic, should we specify?-What do other certifications do? Others specify components. We could say a minimum of 2 hours in each category or we can do 15 hours in a certain number of these categories. At least 15 total hours of con ed covering each of the following subject areas unique to community medicine. Motion to clarify that statement to say "At least fifteen (15) total hours of continuing education covering each of the following subject areas unique to community paramedicine" by Scott Helle and seconded by James Hacker. Motion carries. Does board mean KBEMS or the board of directors?-the board in this particular section is the one who is issuing the licensure/certification. So it would be KBEMS. We
