4	Public Comment				None
5	Discussion	Updates			Information sessions and admissions map shared. Logo – Chief Ferguson will work with Joe Middleton on the funding and logo. Scott Helle - the grant that was awarded. Have to create an advisory committee as part of the workgroup. He will reach out to a few of you to see if you'd like to participate. Networking development grant. Create a plan to implement paramedic program; much like what Chief Ferguson is doing.

			Then apply for the funding. Likely that we will get the funding. Three-year project, 250K a year. Plan to work with EKU to take to the rural services. 90-95% of students signed up captured the barriers. Number one was financial constraints and then lack of support from their agency. We have to figure out how to get scholarships and financial assistance to these people. Pell grants, KEES money and others. Biggest barrier is funding. Executive Director Slone: The Board will try and consider changing the workforce money. 164.787 – Work Ready KY Scholarship Program Enrollment could potentially double if we can figure out the work ready money. Chief Ferguson and Liz Harney will follow up with CPE regarding eligibility and trying to get more info from CPE staff.
